Oswald Financial, Inc. Launches Retirement Plan Hotline for Employers

(Cleveland, OH) – Oswald Financial, Inc., one of Ohio’s leading experts in the design, implementation and management of Retirement Plans, today launched a retirement plan hotline for employers and retirement plan fiduciaries.

The retirement plan hotline, 1-216-367-1085, provides advice and guidance on plan design, implementation and management as well as assistance with any and all other questions. The hotline is available Monday through Friday from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm. Plan Sponsors can also send their questions via email to RPShotline@oswaldfinancial.com.

From the market and economic downturn to new regulations regarding fee disclosures, an increasing number of employers are finding that independent, unbiased reviews are required. The Oswald Retirement Plan Hotline can help avoid conflicts of interest while gaining quality guidance.

“Recent events have dramatized the importance of professional services to Retirement Plan Sponsors and any person who has responsibility for decision making or operation of a qualified retirement plan. The uninformed, or unwary, are at real risk if they are not carefully managing fiduciary risk,” said Dave Kulchar, executive vice president and director of retirement plan services of Oswald Financial, Inc. “Navigating the maze of rules and responsibilities for retirement plans demands unbiased, experienced answers. The Oswald Retirement Plan Hotline can help answer detailed questions,” Kulchar elaborated.

In addition to the wide spectrum of the finest investment, savings, and executive compensation solutions available, Oswald Financial, Inc. provides a broad range of innovative programs and services, tailored to protect employees and employers. Their expert advisors work to determine where risk, opportunity and security interconnect.
